By becoming a Friend of the Farm, you will be helping us to take care of our 37 acres of land and our animals, and will be supporting our volunteer projects, courses, and the regular events we hold for the community.

In return for your support, as a Friend you will receive our regular newsletter and benefit from a 10% discount in our shop, on farm grown produce, meat, eggs, jams and chutneys etc., as well as on room hire, courses and events held at the farm. You will also be invited to our Annual General Meeting where you can meet up with other Friends and have your say about how the farm develops.

FREE FRIENDSHIP OF THE FARM

We offer free Friendship to anyone living within the boundary indicated on this map (proof of address required).

BECOME A REGULAR GIVER

It costs around £200,000 a year to run Bath City Farm, so we do rely on monthly donations from supporters to help us sustain this wonderful community facility! What your regular donation could fund: £2 a month will feed 2 chickens for a week, £5 will feed 3 goats for a week and £10 a will feed 1 pig for a week. You can donate as much or as little as you want. If you would like become a Regular Giver, please tick the box on the application form opposite and we send you more information.
